

2010 Summer Reading Program - Be a Cleveland Library Champion!

Win your own "A LIBRARY CHAMPION LIVES HERE!" yard sign. Schools closed? Their libraries locked up for the summer? Have you considered the summer reading program at the Cleveland Library? 14,000 books are displayed in the children's library; 80-90,000 books in the library collection. Volunteers are getting more on display weekly. This could be your yard sign.

Summer Reading Kickoff

When: Saturday, July 10, 2010 - 10:00 AM

Where: Cleveland Library

Summer reading program and library card sign-up. Earn a family "A LIBRARY CHAMPION LIVES HERE!" yard sign. Simply read ten books, write the titles on a Summer Reading form, and return the completed form to the library by August 7. Families are encouraged to send pictures of library champions posing with their signs to be posted on the library web page.

Those who earn Library Champion yard signs may submit a digital photo of the reader with their sign to Ron@4042needs.org. Please note that by doing so, you are granting permission for Cleveland Library to post the picture on the website. The top readers in Richmond read over 40 books weekly!

Summer Reading Finish

When: Saturday, August 7, 2010 - 10:00 AM

Where: Cleveland Library

Last day to turn your reading accomplishment form in to secure your prize yard sign. Don't forget to send in pictures of the winners putting out their signs.
